Further to the joint press release issued this morning by le Groupement Les Mousquetaires and Casino group, TERACT, of which InVivo group is the majority shareholder, confirms that the exclusive discussions initiated on March 9th with Casino group are continuing.

TERACT and the Casino group have until the end of the current exclusivity period to reach an agreement, based on an industrial project proposed jointly by TERACT, le Groupement Les Mousquetaires and the Casino group on April 24th.

The press release issued this morning refers to the signing of a protocol of intent between Groupement Les Mousquetaires and Casino group, which is compatible with the discussions currently underway with TERACT, and demonstrates that the industrial project is still at the heart of the discussions. These are aimed at strengthening the collaboration between the three players.

This project aims to reinvent the world of retailing and bring about the emergence of a new integrated agri-food model, focused on quality, responsible production and the customer. It also aims to enhance farmers' incomes by reconnecting them with consumers.
